OCFCU Membership Eligibility

1. Employees, members, and students of a Catholic Diocese in the State of Ohio. Including its parishes, school, services, ministries, organizations, or entities.
Who is a member of the Diocese? The Catholic Diocese states that any person who is baptized as a Catholic and resides within the Diocesan boundaries is a member of the Diocese, regardless of whether that person is a member of a parish.
2. Members of the immediate family, or household of a person, as listed above.
Immediate family is defined as spouse, child, sibling, parent, grandparent, or grandchild, aunt, uncle, daughter-in-law, and son-in-law. This includes stepparents, stepchildren, step-siblings, and adoptive relationships. Household is defined as person living in the same residence maintaining a single economic unit.
3. Spouses of a person who has died while in the field of membership.
4. Employees, volunteers, or retirees of the Ohio Catholic FCU.
